Teen thief threatens girls of 11

A TEENAGE mugger robbed three 11-year-old girls of their mobile phones in broad daylight in Harlow.

The young victims were walking along Tending Road between 2.25pm and 2.40pm on Saturday when they were approached by the thief.

Detective Constable Mike Ferguson, of Harlow Police, said: "The suspect threatened the girls and then grabbed one of them and demanded her mobile phone."

"She took her phone and the other girls were so scared they also handed over their phones."

A leopard print purse and cash were also taken. Two of the phones were Blackberrys and the third an iPhone.

The suspect is described as white, aged 14 or 15 and of slim to medium build, with blonde hair. She was wearing a black padded jacket with a belt and fur hood, black leggings and black trainers.

DC Ferguson added: "This was a very scary incident for these three girls."

"If anyone has any information which could assist my enquires I would ask them to call me."

In a separate incident a 15-year-old girl was pulled to the ground and robbed by two teenagers while walking in an alleyway leading to Barn Mead field at around 3.30pm on Monday.

Her assailants stole lip balm, a glass candle holder, a jar of sweets and a spotted pink and white material bag. The items were birthday presents from her friends.

The suspects are described as a girl aged about 17 with straight dark brown hair, of slim build and wearing a short black coat and jeans, and a 17-year-old boy with short ginger hair, freckles across his nose and wearing a grey track-suit.

Police are keen to talk to a couple with a pushchair who went to the aid of the victim as they believe they may be able to assist with the investigation.

A teenage girl who was arrested in connection with the incident on Saturday afternoon has been questioned and released on police bail.

Anyone with information about either robbery should contact DC Ferguson or DC Victoria Joy at Harlow CID on the non-emergency 101 number or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Warning over fake postcode lottery letter

A LETTER sent to households across Essex claiming they have won a 'postcode lottery' is a scam, police have warned.

The letter, purportedly from The Euromillions International Postcode Lottery, claims to have been sent directly from Brussels and from the 'desk of the Vice President'.

However, the giveaway is its noticeably poor English and counts the FIFA World Cup, Commonwealth Games and National Lottery as supporters.

The letter tells people they have won thousands, then asks them to call a claim line and send a form back to claim the prize.

Earlier this week the Star received a call from a reader living in Sewell Harris Court, Harlow, who received the letter.

An Essex Police spokesman said: "Several people have reported the scam to Essex Police. Many others will have realised it's a hoax and thrown the letter away but some may be more vulnerable and find themselves being tricked."

"The scam has been around for many years but seems to have spiked over the last few weeks around the county."

Crime prevention tactical advisor Graham Anthony, who is based at Harlow police station, said: "This scam has been around for a while and unfortunately some people do fall for it."

"The reminder is never to give out your personal information, especially account details, PIN numbers and signatures to strangers. After all, if you haven't entered how can you win? Something that seems too good to be true usually is."

For more help and information contact your local Essex Police crime prevention tactical advisor on 101 or Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040.

Potholes 'shouldn't have got this bad'

GEMMA GARDNER

gemma.gardner@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE deteriorating state of roads in The Stow area of Harlow has prompted residents to launch a petition to get them repaired.

Residents living in the area are fed up with the number of potholes that litter the highway.

Resident Danny Purton said: "It is dangerous for pedestrians, cyclists and motorists and should never have been allowed to get so bad."

Another resident, Shelia Sullivan added: "I believe that Essex County Council did have spare money in its highways budget last year and could have spent it on repairing our roads."

"People are angry that the roads and pavements have been allowed to get into such a terrible state and Essex County Council appears to be unwilling to do anything about it."

"We have been collecting signatures on a petition about the state of the roads and pavements and residents have been flocking to add their support."

Last month Harlow, MP Robert Halfon called on the Government to set aside more money for pothole repairs.

Mr Halfon has also launched a campaign to tackle the problem and is encouraging Harlow residents to write to him about any potholes in their area.

He said "We are compiling the database of all the potholes that are sent in to us which is all being done on a spreadsheet.

"The idea is that somebody emails or tweets me a pothole and we put it on a spreadsheet. I then forward the issue to Essex County Council and I ask them for an update on the problem."

"I then update the resident who submitted the pothole to me."

Children upset after thief steals bicycles from garage

FOUR bicycles including two children's bikes were stolen from the garage of a family home in Harlow over the weekend.

Police are investigating the burglary at the Tithelands garage which happened overnight between Saturday and Sunday. Thieves entered the victim's garage and removed an adult man's mountain bike, a black/blue Challenger and two children's bikes - a pink BMX and a "motorbike-bike" from Toys R Us.

Owner Connie Robinson, 46, said: "They took the two children's bikes and two of my husband's bikes. He had just brought one of them. We found out on Sunday morning when my husband, who cycles, went to go to work and discovered they had gone."

"I'm really annoyed and the children are really upset they were crying when they found out. Both bikes were birthday presents so it's upsetting for them."

Anyone with information about the burglary is urged to contact the neighbourhood policing team at Harlow on 101.

Traffic problems date back to decision taken 40 years ago

SIR Does Harlow's daily traffic congestion have a specific cause? Did someone in the past act in a way that has caused the current chaos to ensue? The answer to both these questions is yes.

Before the Second World War a highway called the Norwich Radial was planned. Its route, which generally followed the Lee Valley, was surveyed and marked out back in 1938 but activity was suspended because of the war. However, the route plan remained unchanged until 1970.

In 1947, central government delegated to Harlow Development Corporation the laying out of Harlow New Town within designated borders. The HDC responded by locating the three centres of commerce of the town - Pinnacles, the town centre and Templefields - close to the route of this planned new highway.

In 1957 the HDC's guide book still showed the Norwich Radial, together with proposed access points into the town. In 1970, central government pronounced that the highway (renamed M11) would be rerouted to the Roding Valley, bringing it on the east side of Harlow with access in the south east corner.

It was said that this would save £10m (£140m today). No consideration was apparently given to the fact that the town had been planned around a motorway on its northern and western boundary.

Any joined-up thinking by central government would have seen the necessity to embody into the new plans a spur on the northern side of the town to directly feed the town's three centres of commerce and, enhance access to Stanstead from the A414(W).

So now you have the specific cause and you have the culprit.

This change in the motorway routing and positioning of the Harlow access point south of Potter Street is the prime cause of the town's traffic dysfunction.

We all need to pressurise central government to make amends by fully funding the full northern link road solution, funding from central government and not from impoverished county councils.

Reasons for increase in food thefts are clear for all to see

SIR In his specious conclusion that the reasons for a rise in food thefts and the use of foodbanks "are deep and complex" (Star, April 10), Robert Halfon made it all sound as mysterious as the search for the Higgs boson particle.

The reasons bare only deep and complex if you are in total denial that the cause of the rise is almost entirely due to the Draconian welfare reform the Government is inflicting upon the most vulnerable members of our society.

The reasons, however, are out there for all to see - if they want to.

The Trussell Trust, which co-ordinates most of the foodbanks in the UK, has found that half the adults using them are

Nine-year-old Francesca Griffiths, of Waterhouse, Moor, took this picture of a mother duck and her eight ducklings by the lock at Parndon Mill last week.

The picture was sent in by her grandfather Steve Henosn, who writes: "I am getting her into photography. I am trying to get my daughter to buy her a new camera so perhaps this will help convince her."

If you have a photo taken in or around the town which you would like to feature in our Photo of the Week section, email a high resolution copy in JPEG format, along with a description of your photo and details of when and where it was taken, to star@hertsessexnews.co.uk. Include your name and address and insert 'Photo of the Week' in the subject line.

having issues with their benefits. Even though many have low income jobs, they still struggle to buy food after making their debt repayments and paying off other expenses such as extortionate fuel bills.

When the coalition came to power in 2010 there were between 20-30 foodbanks in the UK. Now there are between 400-500, with a sharp increase occurring in April 2013 when the Government curb on welfare came into effect.

Mr Halfon should take his head out of the sand bucket and, if he really cares, petition Ian Duncan-Smith for a more humane approach on welfare to mitigate the hardship and indignity that many thousands of our fellow citizens are having to endure.

Then, instead of obfuscating about reasons "deep and complex" he might just do some good and be a true champion of the people.

Ridiculous sentence will deter other domestic abuse victims

SIR Is it any wonder, that domestic violence is on the increase in Harlow when you read the court report ("Thug forced ex-girlfriend to strip before assaulting her") published in the Star on April 17?

The ridiculous sentence metered out to the thug who made his partner stand on her balcony in her underwear, slapped her, smashed her belongings up, sat on her pinning her down and then robbing her before booking himself into a local hotel with another woman is beyond belief.

The fact that the judge said he "fell out" with his partner, "behaved disgracefully" and lost his temper is a joke. To add that the judge thought it was a "one-off" was incredible.

This is clearly systematic mental and physical abuse. What is the point in reporting anything when scumbags such as this are just given a rap on the knuckles?

The whole thing is shameful and discourages anyone to even bother to seek help or even hope that justice will be prevail.

B. Court
Paddock Mead, Harlow

Council should bring back ban on lorries parking overnight

SIR In answer to Ann Lilly's response to the letter from Terry Oliver about parking problems, (Star, April 17), perhaps she should have read his letter properly.

He said it was against the law to drive on the pavement. If she would like to get on to the council, perhaps they could reintroduce the covenant on Harlow that no commercial vehicles should be parked on the roads overnight.

Be aware that garden thieves are once again out and about

SIR Once again garden thieves are about in Harlow, taking advantage of the lack of street lights.

They decided to steal my large green jardiniere that has been standing by my front door full of yellow flowers and white tulips.

It was not an easy target as it is very heavy, so whoever decided to steal it must have had transport as it could not have been carried away.

The police have said they would like any other residents in Shawbridge or nearby areas to report any thefts to them.

There are some mean nasty people about. So, Shawbridge residents, be aware.

Margaret McDermott
Shawbridge, Harlow

Who decided to spend money on confusing hospital signs?

SIR With all the essential needs at Princess Alexandra Hospital such as shortage of nurses (many millions spent last year on agency/bank nurses), who in their right mind has decided to spend thousands on new signage at the entrances to the hospital using numbers and zones instead of ward names?

Are they saying that we can no longer read?

Having used this numerical system, they then have forgotten to put up a map showing where the number/zones refer to at the entrance, so there is even more confusion.

Name and address supplied

Still waiting for a repair after reporting a pothole last year

SIR The Star was right to raise the issue of potholes and the £2.9m paid in compensation resulting from the atrocious state of our roads and pavements (Fix these hell holes, April 17).

Someone I know reported to Essex County Council in January last year potholes at the junction of Church Langley Way and Minton Lane/Aynsley Gardens.

On recently asking for an explanation as to why these potholes still remain, the reply came back they had been inspected twice in 2013 and in March 2014 but there were no issues that met the council's criteria. However, they failed to say what the criteria was.

A few years this same council boasted about an innovative 'make potholes history' scheme they had launched, saying it was the cost-effective way and would save tens of thousands of pounds.

Perhaps the majority of roads in Harlow are category three but what is this obviously poor criteria? Has it been downgraded and our politicians don't want us to know?

No wonder many of us have lost faith in potholes.

A. Buckman
Church Langley, Harlow

Preventing accidents will halt the compensation payments

SIR Reading that almost £3m has been paid in compensation for pothole-related injuries, one has to ask what kind of people are happy to have citizens they supposedly represent get injured and then fork out some cash rather than spend money dealing with the hazards and prevent the accidents?

My conclusion is they are unfit for public office.

Anonymous donation buys a new minibus

A DONATION from a good Samaritan has allowed a residential care home for adults with disabilities to buy a brand new minibus.

Sanctuary Supported Living, based in Potter Street, was given an anonymous donation which allowed them to buy the minibus for residents at the home.

The minibus - a Mercedes Sprinter panel van - will give staff at Sanctuary Supported Living, which supports adults with disabilities and learning difficulties, the chance to take residents on regular trips within Harlow and further afield.

A spokesman for the home said: "It enables our residents to better access the community. They can go out on trips and not just locally which is always a good thing."

"We encourage our residents to be

BIANCA CASTRO

as independent as possible, and they often go out into the community with a carer so this very generous donation is much appreciated. It was a lovely gesture. Everyone here was very excited to get the new minibus.

"It will be a big help, we did have an existing minibus but it was very old and it would not be long until it had given up the ghost entirely so this very lovely donation came at just the right time really."

Staff at the residential home are already planning more activities and day trips for its residents.

Livingstone House administrator Susan Preater said: "The residents are thrilled with the donation and can't wait to use it for their trips and weekly outings to the coast, to see other towns and to visit new sights."

The minibus was unveiled at a ceremony on Friday which was attended by staff, residents, friends and family. Entertainment was also provided on the day from a Billy Fury and Elvis tribute act.

Ms Preater added: "It was a fantastic day for everyone and it was lovely to see so many people arrive to see the handover of this wonderful new bus for our residents."

The Harlow home is part of the housing and care provider Sanctuary Group, which provides accommodation and support to more than 6,000 disadvantaged or vulnerable people across the country.

To find out more about Sanctuary Supported Living visit www.sanctuary-supported-living.co.uk.

Rape accused is sent for jury trial

A MAN accused of raping a 15-year-old girl at an address in Harlow has been sent for trial.

Thomas Zackery Lacey, 22, of Collins Meadow, Harlow, was remanded on conditional bail to appear at Chelmsford Crown Court on July 21 for a plea and case management hearing.

He is accused of committing the offence on September 21, 2012.

Lacey, who appeared at Chelmsford Magistrates Court yesterday (Wednesday), also faces two other charges of engaging in sexual activity with two other girls - both 15 - between August 15 and September 20, 2012.

He was granted bail on condition he does not contact any of the three alleged victims.

A PREGNANT woman was one of seven people who were left homeless following a fire in the roof of three terraced homes on Monday.

Two crews from Harlow and firefighters from Old Harlow, Epping and Ongar attended the scene of the blaze in Rowley Meade, Thornwood.

At one point the incident commander reported the roofs were 70 per cent alight.

Firefighters wore 20 sets of breathing apparatus and used three main jets and three hose reel jets to tackle the blaze.

Witness Lesley Davison, who took the picture, left, from his back garden, said: "The smoke was thick black and acrid. It was a very serious fire."

"Our hearts go out to all who have lost their homes and belongings. This is just horrendous. I cannot imagine how they are feeling at this time."

An investigation is now under way to establish the cause of the blaze.

One night under the stars... but for some it's a way of life

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsessexnews.co.uk

AS many people were tucking into bed or enjoying a night out on Friday, a group of 32 people - myself included - were making their way to St Mary-at-Latton church to find a sleeping place for the night.

After a hot drink and some entertainment from talented singer Keiren Mitchell, those taking part in homeless charity Streets2Homes' Sleep-Out found a spot and set up their cardboard, tarpulin and sleeping bag before attempting to get comfortable for the night.

I wore seven layers, which included two jackets and the thickest socks I own and I still woke up several times throughout the night feeling cold. The dull ache from sleeping on the hard ground also didn't help and I only managed around four hours sleep in total.

But, at the end of it, I got to go home whereas homeless people do not, and it made me realise how lucky I was to do that for one night and then be able to go home - to a shower, a bed and a place I felt safe. And that is what is important about the charity's event. It is about raising awareness as well as much needed funds.

Streets2Homes manager Kerrie Eastman had warned me before I signed up that many people that take part in the Sleep-Out say it changes their mindset and I can see why.

Streets2Homes provide help, support and advice to the town's homeless to help people get back on their feet and into a home.

On my part, there was not as much sleeping as I would normally have but we were lucky with the weather and that the rain held off until we were waking up and packing away.

The town's homeless are not as lucky, though they have the charity's centre to go to during the day. At night, they must face the elements and the dangers that come from sleeping rough. After just one night, trying to emulate what that must feel like - albeit in much safer circumstances - I was exhausted and just wanted to go home and I am lucky enough to have that option.

If the Sleep-Out has taught me anything, it is how vital Streets2Homes are, who help residents when they are at their most desperate and vulnerable get back on their feet.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Police appeal after reports of flasher being seen in The Stow

POLICE are appealing for information after receiving reports of a man exposing himself to women in The Stow area of Harlow.

The incidents have so far happened in the morning between 6.30-9am.

One occurred in Cooks Spinney shortly before 8am on Monday when the suspect whistled at a woman, causing her to turn around twice. On the second occasion he indecently exposed himself.

The suspect is described as white, in his mid 20s and around 6ft tall. He was wearing dark jeans and a black hoodie at the time.

Anyone who has been the victim of the flasher should contact Harlow police on the non-emergency 101 number.

Firefighters set for weekend strikes in row over pensions

FIREFIGHTERS in Essex are preparing for further strike action this weekend in an on-going national dispute with the Government over pensions.

The Fire Brigades Union has announced there will be three walkouts – one tomorrow (Friday) from noon-5pm, one on Saturday from 2pm-2am and the third on Sunday from 10am-3pm.

A spokesman for Essex County Fire and Rescue Service said it had made arrangements to ensure fire cover is maintained during strike periods. However, he urged the public to keep risks to a minimum during periods of reduced fire cover.

Still time to take a stand at Harlow Business Exhibition

MORE firms have signed up to take part in the Harlow Business Exhibition at the town's Leisurezone on Tuesday, June 10.

Recent bookings include Down Hall Country House Hotel, I'Vet, Jac Products, Paragon Fitness Studio and Your Perfect Travel.

Most stands have already been booked but there are still some spaces available. For more information visit www.harlowbusinessexhibition.co.uk or call (01279) 775953.

Free parking will be available on site but only for pre-registered visitors.

Attack victim kicked in face during catfight outside club

STAFF at an Old Harlow lettings agency have started raising funds for the breast cancer trials unit at Princess Alexandra Hospital by collecting keys.

The idea is to collect as many keys as possible which they will then sell for scrap metal and donate the proceeds to the unit.

Management co-ordinator Gina Allen suggested the fundraiser after seeing something similar in America.

"I have some family history with the clinic and I saw that it had been done in America so I spoke to a scrap metal company in River Way and asked them about it," she said.

"I have so many keys at home that are useless

Scrap metal is key to success of fundraiser and I am sure many other people in Harlow do as well.

"We want to raise as much money as possible for the unit."

Anyone with keys they would like to donate to the appeal should drop them in at the agency's office in Market Street which is open on weekdays from 9am-6pm and on Saturdays from 10am-2pm.

A YOUNG woman who kicked another female in the face during a scuffle outside a Harlow nightclub has been ordered to complete 100 hours of unpaid community work.

Georgina Little, 23, of Ashworth Place, Harlow, was also ordered to pay £1,885 compensation to her victim who suffered a cut mouth and lost a tooth.

Little pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Magistrates Court last Wednesday to assaulting Chrissy Lecount after leaving Seen nightclub in The Rows on December 20 last year.

The assault, which was caught on CCTV, happened after a friend of Little's and a friend of Miss Lecount began fighting.

The court was told Miss Lecount joined in while Little was being restrained by members of the public, but after being released she went over and kicked her.

Grace Court, prosecuting, said: "During a struggle Little ran over to the victim who was on her hands and knees and kicked her in the face, causing bleeding from the nose and mouth."

"Little had been held back on multiple occasions by members of the public before being released. Interviewed, she said she was acting in self defence because she thought she was going to be attacked."

Craig Tipper, representing Little,

said in mitigation his client had been assaulted inside the club and was acting in self defence after the victim was heard to say to friends: "Get, her, get her, don't let her get away."

Mr Tipper said: "On the face of it it seems like a nasty assault which came out of the blue, but it resulted from an incident inside the nightclub."

He said Little had been punched in the face by one of a group of three women who were then told to leave the premises. A few minutes later Little was also told to leave and it was soon after that the confrontation took place.

"It was a momentary lapse in concentration," said Mr Tipper. "She was of previous good character. She's upset because she can't travel to America next year due to the conviction."

Chairman of the bench Dawn Roch told Little: "This is related to a very serious assault where the victim lost a tooth and suffered a split mouth and bloody nose. It was excessive violence; you should have walked away but instead went up and kicked her."

Little was also ordered to pay £85 costs and a £60 victim surcharge.

Lottery winners

THE winner of the £1,000 first prize in the St Clare Hospice lottery drawn on Thursday, April 24 was ticket holder 423712 who lives in Harlow.

Dean runs marathon in friend's memory

A LONG-distance runner successfully completed his fifth marathon race this year in aid of St Clare Hospice.

Dean Davis, 42, of Altham Grove, Harlow, was inspired to take on the Brighton Marathon after his friend, Andrew Thompson, was cared for at the hospice before his death.

It was Dean's seventh running event this year. He has already completed three ultra marathons (35 miles) and two full marathons as well as a half-marathon and the St Clare 10k.

Dean, who works for Universal Pictures, took up running three years ago. He is now preparing to run from London to Brighton and completing another ultra-marathon.

"It was my first Brighton Marathon," he said "My normal distance is around the 50-mile mark but I wanted to do something as soon as possible to support St Clare Hospice in memory of Andrew.

"My wife, Dawn, was there supporting me as she always is and Andrew's partner Maureen came along too as well as a few other people which was nice."

He added: "It was very emotional. I requested something of Andrew's to have on the day. He was a fantastic golfer so Maureen gave me one of his caps. I ran with it in my hand."

"I wore Andrew's name and photo on my St Clare shirt."

As I was running, people shouted out Andrew's name, thinking it was me. Everyone was yelling 'go Andrew' as I ran passed and although it was mistaken identity, it was really nice."

Dean, pictured left with Maureen, raised more than £1,250 for the hospice. He will be running from London to Brighton in aid of Help for Heroes.

When I was told I had cancer we sat in the car park and cried

THREE years ago Anita Collins was given the news that every woman dreads - she had breast cancer. It was a diagnosis that was to change her life... but in a positive way.

"I have a new confidence and strength that I am aware of," said the mother-of-two. "It may have always been there but I know about it now."

"I do not sweat the small stuff anymore, I used to be a lot more worried about little things."

"I also find that I am more tolerant now. If somebody is unpleasant I used to go out of my way to be nice and now I realise it's not that important. I have a confidence, I do not feel afraid, I actually feel stronger."

Anita, 54, of Church Langley, received the diagnosis in October 2011. After undergoing chemotherapy, radiotherapy, surgery and a treatment plan of Herceptin, she was recently given the all-clear.

"I do remember feeling numb when I was diagnosed," said Anita, "but I was tearful. My husband Alan and I just cried. We just sat in the car park; we couldn't believe what we had just heard."

"Then after that we did some shopping. It is strange but you go into a trance, you go into autopilot and do something normal because you do not really know what to do."

Last year Anita completed the Race for Life in Harlow with her daughters, Marie, 32, and Emma, 30, raising more than £2,500 for Cancer Research UK.

"I wanted to do the Race for Life to give something back," she said. "I do donate to Cancer Research but I wanted to do something local to support the charity that does such important work."

"Between my daughters and I we raised over £2,500. I used to run 10k and 5k races before the cancer but I gained weight with treatment and my body ached so we walked it. My daughters used me as an excuse to walk it too."

"It was very emotional crossing the finish line. My husband volunteered as a marshall so we were all involved and we made a whole day out of it."

Anita, praised the work of her medical team and the support of her family and friends who helped her.

"My husband and I have a good relationship, we did talk about it but it was hard. He was superb," Anita said. "It has made us closer."

"Going through cancer is a very personal thing, of course, as there are small little things that you can get anxious about that you don't share."

"Anyone going through cancer will know it can be a lonely journey but you do not have to be alone. There are professional support groups if you cannot go to family and friends."

Anita, who lost her hair as a result of the chemotherapy, chose to not wear a wig. She attended a local support group called Brafternoon which offers non-medical, social support and advice to women suffering from all types of cancer.

"I got involved with Brafternoon because people there knew how I felt because they were going through something similar."

She is now looking forward to attending her daughter Emma's wedding later this year.

"It takes on a whole new meaning," she said. "It was so emotional when she said she was getting married and I knew I was actually going to see it."

"I am a positive person in life. I am clear at the moment but if it does return then I will deal with it then."

The Harlow Race for Life takes place in the Town Park on Sunday, May 18 with two distances - 5k and 10k - to choose from.

The cost of entry is £14.99 for women aged 16 and over and £10 for those aged 6-15 (free for children under 5). The closing date for registration is Thursday, May 15. To enter online visit www.raceforlife.org or call 0845 6006050.

Last year 2,069 women took part in the Harlow Race for Life and raised £135,936 for Cancer Research UK. This year organisers hope to raise £138,000.

If you are unable to take part in the Harlow event, a Race For Life will be held at North Weald Airfield on Wednesday, July 16 at 7pm.

Cash incentive to use cloth nappies

PARENTS who buy cloth nappies for their babies or sign up to a nappy laundering service instead of using disposables are being offered a cash incentive by Essex County Council.

It is estimated that the use of cloth nappies can save £1,000 and they are also better for the environment.

Up to 300,000 disposable nappies are buried daily in Essex landfill sites.

Many modern cloth nappies are shaped just like disposables and come in attractive prints with easy to use Velcro fastenings.

Essex County Council is now offering a £30 refund to parents who live in the county and have either bought cloth nappies or signed up to a nappy laundering service in the past 12 months. For more information on how to claim visit www.recycleforessex.co.uk.

To mark Real Nappy Week which started on Monday, a 'nappucino' coffee morning has been arranged for mums and dads who want to find out more about using cloth nappies, get hints and tips for using them and meet other like-minded parents.

Cllr Roger Walters, cabinet member for waste and recycling, said: "This event will be useful for any parent considering choosing cloth nappies for their babies. Using cloth nappies reduces landfill as well as saving money."

The event takes place on Saturday from 10am to noon at the Ideas Hub opposite the market in High Chelmer, Chelmsford.

Charity ride along part of Tour de France route

CYCLISTS will get the chance to ride part of the Tour de France route through Epping Forest to raise money for charity.

The ride will take place on Sunday, July 6, the day before the world's greatest cycling race arrives in the area. Several different distances of route have been drawn up, all starting at North Weald Airfield.

The event is being organised by Epping Forest Council chairman Tony Boyce, who said: "There will be routes designed for both club cyclists and families to enjoy the experience, with all participants receiving a commemorative T-shirt which they can treasure forever."

Registration opens on Monday and the cost is £15 for adult and £8 for children. Visit www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/epping-forest-chairmans-charity-bike-ride-registration-11382791235 for details.

Grandad pig sick over theft of 11ft-high Peppa

A GRANDFATHER has appealed for the return of an 11ft-high wooden model of cartoon favourite Peppa Pig which has been stolen from a field on the outskirts of Harlow.

Alan Purvis, 63, made the giant cartoon character for his two-year-old granddaughter Willow Sayner, who is a big fan of the pink pig.

Mr Purvis chose the location - a field by the A414 roundabout near Eastwick which is frequently flooded - because Peppa Pig loves muddy puddles.

He was given permission by the field owner to erect the model where it could be seen by passing motorists.

He was planning to remove it last Tuesday but when he arrived at the field it had disappeared.

"I was disappointed to see it had been stolen," he said. "The reason I put Peppa Pig up in the field was for my granddaughter."

"It seemed to get quite a lot of attention and it seems the only person that didn't get to see it was my granddaughter who had to be taken to hospital."

Mr Purvis, who is a carpenter and has built many models, added: "It's not an easy thing to hide as she's very tall and very bright."

"I love making things. I have been working with wood since I was 12 and as it was for my granddaughter it would be nice to get her back."

● Have you spotted Peppa Pig? Can you reunite her with Mr Purvis? If so, contact the Star on (01279) 400577.

Role of support officers is 'vital' says police tsar

CUTS in the number of police and community support officers in Essex could lead to a rise in crime, according to the country's biggest public services union.

The warning from Unison comes in response to data showing that more than 3,500 PCSO jobs in England have been lost since the 2010 General Election, despite ministers' commitment to protect frontline policing.

A report produced by the union said the number of PCSOs - uniformed, non-warranted officers working alongside regular constables - in Essex has fallen by 28 per cent.

Over there has been a 22 per cent reduction in the number of PCSOs in England with nine police force having cut more than 20 per cent of their ranks. Only five out of the 39 constabularies in England have maintained or increased their number of PCSOs.

The report also shows that 60 per cent of Unison members working as PCSOs had seen cuts in staff or resources in their police force.

Union general secretary Dave Prentis said: "Neighbourhood policing is dying on the beat. What took years to build up is being lost because of reckless Government cuts."

"PCSOs play a key role in intelligence gathering, tackling minor crimes and anti social behaviour. They are a reassuring and deterring visible presence in our streets and without them crime is likely to rise."

Headed: "The Government's claims that frontline policing would be protected are in tatters. The cuts on neighbour-

star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

hood teams are putting the public safety into jeopardy. That is why we are calling on the Government to fund and maintain neighbourhood policing teams at their 2010 level."

The 28.54 per cent cut in Essex was the fourth highest in the country.

Essex Police and Crime Commissioner Nick Alston said PCSOs had a vital role in local policing across the county and he remained "completely committed" to keeping them as key members of community policing teams.

"There has been a reduction in PCSO numbers in our county but that reduction would have been even greater had I not acted to support funding for policing through modest rises in council tax," he said. "However, with less resource available the policing model will have to be different. Around 85 per cent of the budget for policing and community safety consists of the salaries of police officers, PCSOs and police staff."

He added: "I will do all I can to drive further efficiency to free resources for the front line, but I will also ensure we invest in the future."

"We will have fewer PCSOs as we are also likely to have fewer officers, staff and even police stations. But crime has continued to fall through all the recent changes and I am confident the chief constable and his officers, PCSOs and police staff will do all they can to continue to deliver professional policing to all of us in Essex."

Stolen jewellery found in garage

POLICE are trying to reunite several pieces of jewellery found in a garage in Harlow with their rightful owners.

The jewellery is believed to have been stolen but officers have been unable to match them with anything reported stolen in a burglary.

They have released photos of the pieces and are appealing to anyone who recognises any of them to contact PC Simon Wales on the non-emergency 101 number.

printed in the Harlow Gazette, a huge success with the winners named as Dick Denman and his 11-year-old son John.

The pair received a trophy while all 10 teams that finished the course were presented with certificates by councillor Arthur Graham.

The teams started off from Ladyshot Common Room where they were handed a list of 14 clues and a map of the area containing 14 points to be visited in order to find the correct answers and scoop up top prize.

The hunt followed a 10-mile route. In addition to correctly working out the answers to the clues, cyclists had to collect a matchbox, a dandelion and a fir cone.

Royal greetings to 'Old Couples'

It was a very special party indeed for members of the Old Harlow Couples' Treat when they received a telegram of good wishes from the Queen in January 1974.

The picture above was taken at the 97th treat which was held at the Women's Institute Hall in Old Harlow. To mark the occasion Her Majesty sent a message of warm thanks to the club for their "kind and loyal message".

The telegram was read out to members by club secretary Harold Parish between the courses of the dinner.

It said: "Please convey to all the pensioners of Old Harlow the warm thanks of the Queen for their kind and loyal message of greeting sent on the occasion of the 97th annual Old Couples' Treat, which Her Majesty greatly appreciates. She sends her best wishes to all the old people."

According to a report in the local press, the committee which organised the evening sent out more than 100 parcels to other residents in the area who were unable to attend the party.

More than 90 residents attended the festivities, which included a meal as well as a performance from a local comedian.

NEWS

Help us tackle problem of motorcycles and mini-motos

IT'S great that the weather has improved over the past month but one of the problems this brings to us all is motorcycles and mini-motos being ridden on cycle tracks and recreational areas.

Three areas in particular have been blighted this month: Latton Common and the estates nearby, the cycle tracks near Staple Tye and the fields near to The Gibberd Garden in Old Harlow.

Our teams have spent a lot of time in these areas over the past few weeks trying to prevent these issues.

A number of warnings have been given and one motorcycle has been seized but the problem remains.

I would now like your help. I need to know where the riders of these vehicles live or garage their bikes. If these bikes are taken to these locations in other vehicles such as vans, let me know the number plate of the van. Once we find where these bikes are housed the neighbourhood police teams will pay them a visit.

ON THE BEAT

By Sergeant Rob Cox
Harlow Neighbourhood Policing Team

The neighbourhood team contact are on the Essex Police website at www.essexpolice.uk. Once on the website navigate to Harlow via the 'My Neighbourhood' tab.

After last month's very low number of house burglaries we have seen a slight rise this month and the reasons for this are being investigated by our CID officers.

As I write this article on Tuesday evening we have three local teenagers in the cells being questioned about a house burglary in the Maddox Road area. Again, my CID colleagues are looking at links to any other recent burglaries.

I would like to remind everyone, but particularly those of you who live alone, to be aware of people turning up on your doorstep offering something for sale or saying that something is wrong with your property.

Always ask for ID and tell the caller the reason you are asking is so that you can check with their employer or the police. A genuine caller will have no issue with this.

One recent incident in Harlow involved a 'builder' knocking on a resident's door and claiming one of the roof tiles on their property needed mending. This suddenly turned into several roof tiles being found damaged and it was suspected the rogue 'builder' may have damaged the tiles himself in order to make the job more expensive.

Again, if a professional points out work that needs doing they will not be offended if you say you will get your own valuation.

Crimes like these are still relatively few but take steps to keep yourself safe and never forget basic security such as the use of your door chain and spyhole. If you are not happy, then don't open the door to a stranger.

Stay safe and have a good month.

Mother's pride in singing star son

MICKY DUMOULIN

THE mother of a supermarket worker who wowed judges on Britain's Got Talent on Saturday has spoken of her pride in her son.

Micky Dumoulin, 24, received a standing ovation from the judges - Simon Cowell, David Walliams, Alesha Dixon and Amanda Holden - for his performance of Bring Him Home from the musical Les Miserables.

His mother, Jill, who works at Harlow Town Football Club, said: "I am very proud, to say the least. Micky likes to show people what he is able to do and he did so well."

"I am worse than him when it comes to nerves. He is amazing the way he deals with being nervous - I think I carry it for him."

"Micky loves what he does. Ever since he was little he has always loved singing and performing."

"I remember going on holiday when he was very small and he got up on the karaoke to sing something. It is something he has always wanted to do."

Micky, who performed at the Harlow 5Aid charity at Harlow Town FC event last year, was voted through to the next stage of the ITV talent show.

Jill, who was sitting in the audience for Saturday's show with her other son Chris, 27, and Micky's grandmother Rene, added: "We are absolutely over the moon with all the support Micky has received so far."

"The whole family watched the show on Saturday; it was a family night in."

"Britain's Got Talent is a great opportunity for him."

A STEAMSHIP that sank in 1888 has been located again under the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

New sonar images of the City of Chester steamboat, right, show it sitting upright, covered in mud.

The passenger ship, pictured above, sank after another ship the Oceanic ran into it. Sixteen people died but 106 other passengers were rescued before the ship was lost.

The ship is thought to be almost complete despite being underwater for so long.

The wreckage was found in 217 feet of water just inside the Golden Gate while the area's shipping channels were being charted. There are no plans to raise the boat from the mud but there will be an exhibition about the story of its discovery.

Take a virtual tour of the River Stort at www.harlowstar.co.uk

Google creates 'virtual' tour of the River Stort

GEMMA GARDNER

gemma.gardner@hertsessexnews.co.uk

FOR the first time residents can walk along some of the nation's most iconic waterway locations from the comfort of their armchair including the River Stort in Harlow.

Google imagery has captured photographs of Essex's rivers and canals using Google Street View's latest piece of technology called the Trekker – a four-foot, 40lb backpack, fitted with a 15-angle lens camera taking 360 degree pictures every 2.5 seconds.

The Canal & River Trust – the charity that cares for 2,000 miles of waterways across England and Wales – was the first organisation in the UK to take the Trekker on loan from Google.

From August until November last year staff from the Trust captured footage of more than 130 miles of waterways, which will now be available so people can make a virtual trip along a variety of waterway spots.

The Trekker is designed to capture imagery in public locations which the street view car and trike cannot typically reach. The narrow waterway footpaths and bridges proved ideal places to trial the technology, which has also put views of the Grand Canyon, the world's tallest building, Burj Khalifa, and some of the world's highest peaks, online.

In all, 20 staff and volunteers from the trust trekked across 72 locations around the country including some of the most idyllic, hidden and popular places on the 200-year network of canals and rivers.

Imagery now available includes the River Stort in Harlow, Little Venice, the Grand Union Canal in Brentford, Three Mills in east London and Regents Canal at City Road Lock in Islington.

With more organisations globally loaning the Trekker, 'armchair explorers' can view more of these remote and hard-to-reach places than ever before.

Wendy Hawk, partnership manager at the Trust, said: "We're delighted to be the first people in the UK to loan the Trekker from Google."

"The nation's canals were cutting-edge technology when they were built 200 years ago, so it's been fascinating to see them in a new light through the latest piece of 21st century technology."

"We want more people to find out about the great locations and things to do on our waterways. Hopefully the Street View footage will inspire new visitors, whether they are from abroad, finding a new route to work or school, or already use the waterways regularly but want to discover new places to go."

Emily Clarke, communications manager at Google, said: "We work with specialist organisations to capture some of the remotest and most beautiful locations in the world from the Grand Canyon to Mount Everest."

"The Canal & River Trust trekkers have captured some stunning imagery of Britain's idyllic waterways so more of us can experience them than ever before."

The footage is available on Street View and via the trust's website at www.canalriver-trust.org.uk

Taking part in Midnight Walk is trolley good fun

SHOPPERS got more than they bargained for when fundraisers from St Clare Hospice turned up at the Tesco store in Epping on Monday to persuade people to sign up for this year's Star-backed Midnight Walk.

They handed out hundreds of registration forms for the 1980s-themed fun night which is taking place in Harlow on Saturday, June 28.

Even hospice mascot Clare the Bear joined the tutu-wearing fundraising team to promote what has become St Clare's biggest fundraising event of the year.

Events fundraiser Rebecca Barnett, pictured right with Clare, said: "Last year almost 40 per cent of the patients and families cared for by the hospice were from the Epping Forest area and we receive tremendous support from local people living across the district."

"We would really like to see as many Epping Forest residents as possible join us for the Midnight Walk and help raise vital funds for their local hospice which cares for people in their community."

As in previous years the Midnight Walk will set off from the Water Gardens in Harlow town centre. Walkers are being given the choice of either a 5km or 10km route.

Those taking part are being urged to join in the theme of this year's event by wearing their best '80s fashion. There will also be a chance to buy '80s merchandise including tutus, headbands and leg warmers, while the pre-walk and post-walk entertainment will also have an '80s party theme.

The cost of registration is £15 per person. More information is available at www.stclarehospice.org.uk/midnight.html or by calling the St Clare fundraising team on (01279) 773750.

Registration forms can be picked up from the hospice reception or at any of the St Clare shops.

UKIP targeting council seats

Fight is on for victory in Euro poll

GEMMA GARDNER

gemma.gardner@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE UK Independence Party will for the first time be fielding candidates in every Harlow Council ward.

Voters go to the polls on Thursday, May 22 to select candidates in all 11 wards, with one extra seat up for grabs in Mark Hall following last month's resignation of Labour councillor Paul Schroder.

Elected candidates will serve a four-year term of office. Currently, the council has 20 Labour councillors, 12 Conservative and one independent.

UKIP secretary Mark Gough said he felt the party had a chance to win seats.

He said: "I don't think we've ever had more than one candidate and to gain any seats would be a success for us."

"Gaining seats from Labour would give us some sort of a say."

Charlie Cochrane, chairman of Harlow Labour Party, said supporters had been working hard to ensure a successful result.

He added: "Harlow Labour is proud to have a full slate of hardworking local candidates including a nurse, a teacher, a care worker and a small business owner."

"We have a strong team of candidates who are rooted in the community, representing real people, working hard for Harlow all year round."

Harlow Conservatives leader Andrew Johnson praised the party's candidates, who had been working hard since the last election.

He told the Star: "Harlow Conservatives are the only party with the proven track record of cutting council tax and balancing the councils budget.

"We have a great team of candidates, keen to help people, who have been knocking on doors meeting people every week since the last election."

A number of independent candidates will also be standing. They include members of Harlow Independent Party, which was set up by former Conservative councillor Joshua Jolles.

"The time of the independent has come," he said. "Never mind UKIP, this is a local party campaigning on local issues."

The Liberal Democrats saw their vote crumble across the town at the last election and currently have no representation in the council chamber.

The Star contacted the local party for comment but they had not responded by the time we went to press.

The election takes place three weeks today and the Star will be covering it live throughout the night. Follow the coverage at www.harlowstar.co.uk or on Twitter @HarlowStar.

HARLOW Council are reminding residents to register to vote in this year's local and European elections.

Polling stations will be open for the European and district votes on Tuesday, May 22.

Seven seats are up for grabs in the eastern region of the European election with ten parties putting up seven candidates each.

Labour, the Conservatives, Liberal Democrats and the UK Independence Party (UKIP) are all fielding candidates as are the Green Party, the English Democrats, British National Party (BNP), Christian Peoples Alliance, An Independence from Europe and the NO2EU party.

A Harlow council spokesman said: "The local and European elections are fast approaching but it's not too late to register to vote."

"To take part in these elections you must register to vote; registration is not automatic for example because you pay council tax. If you don't register, you can't vote, and you can't have a say."

For a full list of European election candidates for the eastern region visit the Star website at www.harlowstar.co.uk.

Does Emma have the EsseX factor?

A YOUNG singer is hoping to reach the grand final of singing competition Factor Essex.

Emma Knudsen, 11, of Copse Hill, Harlow is hoping to gain as much support as possible to help her to reach the final of the talent show which takes place in Grays on Sunday, May 18.

Emma, a pupil at Jerounds Primary School, is the youngest contestant on the show and, according to mum Jackie, has been enjoying singing at the live shows.

"She loves performing," said Jackie. "We entered Emma in the show as she is very keen on singing and performing and she has been loving it."

"Emma had to attend bootcamp and from there she got through to the live shows. She's been doing well but we're hoping more people will get behind her and vote for her to keep on going."

Emma started performing when she was four years old as part of the Brenda Taylor School of Dance and Performing Arts. She has taken part in several productions at Harlow Playhouse and more recently, at the Rhodes theatre in Bishop's Stortford.

Jackie added: "She is just having a blast. All she has ever wanted to do was perform. She feels at home on a stage, be it singing, dancing or acting."

Each contestant in the Factor Essex is

assigned to one of four mentors who are also the competition judges. This year they are Lee Knell, Jamie Bartlett, James Grant and X-Factor contestant Lucy Teixeira, who appeared on the ITV show as part of singing duo 2 Shoes in 2011.

Jackie added: "Lucy from 2 Shoes is Emma's mentor so she gives her advice and extra support on the show."

The winner of Factor

Essex will be awarded a recording contract, take part in a performance tour and win a cash prize.

On Sunday Emma received a standing ovation from all four judges when she performed Little Mix's Little Me.

To support Emma, visit her Facebook page by searching 'Emma Knudsen Factor Essex 6 vote page'.

To vote for her text 'Essex Emma' to 85010.

>> Tickets for the Factor Essex grand final at Grays Civic Hall on Sunday, May 18 cost £15 and can be bought by emailing info@factor.essex.net.

A life full of musical Madness for Suggs

MADNESS frontman Suggs brings his hilarious and moving one man tour de force My Life Story to Harlow Playhouse later this month.

Suggs - AKA Graham McPherson - had just turned 50, his kids have left home and his cat had just died. Did he mope? Did he huddle up in a ball and hide from the world? No, because this is Suggs and he doesn't do moping.

Instead he turned his angsty mid-life crisis into a show studded with comedy, music and a whole lot of chat.

It starts with the demise of his cat but spirals into what made him start wondering about his dad who walked out on him and his mum when he was three years old.

Cue a few detours into the depths of his 1970s childhood spent rambling in Wales and the streets of Soho before his music career - in one of the greatest ska bands of all time - took off and you've got enough anecdotes for a rather rollicking evening.

The show has already been praised for faultless comic timing, with Suggs oozing charisma and charm.

His mate Deano, described as his loyal manservant-cum-pianist, will be on hand chucking in a few witty asides.

>> Suggs: My Life in Words and Music will be at Harlow Playhouse on Thursday, May 13. Tickets cost £27 the box office on (01279) 431945.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Playhouse Square, Harlow
(01279) 431945

MUSIC Grammy-nominated singer Stacey Kent performs her new album The Changing Lights at The Playhouse tonight (Thursday), placing her love for Brazilian music centre-stage. The show starts at 7.30pm and ticket prices range from £17-£20.

MUSIC In February 1959 Buddy Holly began a string of dates across the American mid-west on a tour called The Winter Dance Party which also included Ritchie Valens and The Big Bopper. The Winter Dance Party Concert is a celebration of that tour in which four West End artists pay tribute to those music icons. Tomorrow's (Friday) performance starts at 7.30pm and ticket prices range from £16-£19.

DRAMA Alan Ayckbourn's Living Together is the next play to be tackled by the Moot House Players. Directed by Jon McNamara, the am-dram group has been given special permission to perform the play in the year the playwright celebrates his 75th birthday. Living Together is the middle part of his trilogy The Norman Conquests but all three plays stand up in their own right. Annie, the youngest of three children, lives in the shabby Victorian vicarage-type house where the family were brought up and where she now lives looking after her formidable mother. Annie's brother Reg and his wife Sarah come to stay for a weekend so that she may go away for a rest with, they assume, Tom the local vet. But why does Norman, an assistant librarian, turn up and why does Annie decide not to go away? Throw into the mix a bed jacket, a rug, a board game and mother's homemade wine and the result is social comedy that shows Ayckbourn at his best. The MHP cast is Alan Hodgson, Angela Hodgson, Ros Barron, Mike Rees, Geoff Leeds and Ruth Lewis. The play runs from Thursday, May 8 to Saturday, May 10 and tickets cost £8 (£6 concessions).

Disaster epic unleashes the full fury of Vesuvius

EXPLOSIVE: Kiefer Sutherland as corrupt Roman senator Corvus in Pompeii

POMPEII certificate 12A, 1h44m

BRITISH director Paul WS Anderson embraces the hoary clichés of the disaster movie with this unintentionally amusing swords and sandals epic set in the shadow of a grumbling Mount Vesuvius.

Not since the summer of 1997, when Dante's Peak and Volcano went head-to-head at the box office, has the fiery wrath of Mother Nature been unleashed with such pyrotechnic-laden fury.

A prologue set in northern Britannia AD62 introduces a boy called Milo (Dylan Schombing), who witnesses the murder of his parents at the hands of corrupt Roman senator Corvus (Kiefer Sutherland) and sadistic henchman Proculus (Sasha Roiz).

Seventeen years later, Milo (now played by Kit Harington) has blossomed into a merciless killing machine in the gladiatorial arena where he catches the eye of slave master Graecus (Joe Pingue) who is seeking a worthy opponent for undefeated champion Atticus (Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje) at the forthcoming games in Pompeii.

Milo is dragged to the ill-fated city where his rock hard abs induce a lusty swoon in Cassia (Emily Browning), the daughter of wealthy merchant Severus (Jared Harris) and his wife Aurelia (Carrie-Anne Moss). Unfortunately, Corvus has his beady eye on Cassia and the scheming senator demands her hand in marriage in return for Pompeii's rejuvenation under Emperor Titus.

As the games begin, Vesuvius erupts and Milo and Atticus use their physical prowess to escape with terrified Cassia in tow.

Fittingly, Pompeii is built on the shaky foundations of a ramshackle script that doesn't flesh out any of the characters in any sufficient detail to make us care about their fates.

Anderson certainly understands the mechanics of an outrageous action sequence and he engineers some humdingers as fiery rocks rain down on Pompeii's stricken inhabitants.

A prolonged climax expertly cuts together aerial shots of devastation with close-ups of the scantily clad cast falling victim to magma and a tsunami, systematically cutting off the various escape routes until the only option left is to run.

As the city tumbles to its corrupt foundations, the three scriptwriters insist on finding reasons for the two-dimensional characters to delay their exodus.

Harington sports a sweat-glistened six-pack that will make gym bunnies weep with envy but he is unable to deliver any of his clunky lines with conviction. Browning simpers while Sutherland merrily chews scenery.

Action scenes are both thrilling and hilariously preposterous and the romantic subplot twixt Milo and Cassia falls woefully short of the sweeping tragedy of Titanic to which Anderson evidently aspires.

TARZAN certificate PG, 1h39m

John Greystoke (Mark Deklin), the buccaneering chief executive of Greystoke Energies, discovers an ancient meteorite impact site deep in the jungle.

Tragically, John and his wife Alice (Jaime Ray Newman) are killed in a helicopter accident but their son survives and is raised by apes.

As an adult, Tarzan (Kellan Lutz) encounters humans once again when environmentalist Jane Porter (Spencer Locke) arrives with William Clayton (Trevor St. John) who, as the evil new boss of Greystoke Energies, wants to mine the meteorite which promises limitless energy. He'll stop at nothing to get his way - even if it means eliminating Tarzan and Jane.

This adaptation isn't a cutesy caper aimed predominantly at children. Tragedy stalks every frame and a couple of sequences which result in the demise of pivotal characters could be too scary for the very young.

BAD NEIGHBOURS certificate 15, 1h37m

Mac Radner (Seth Rogen) and his wife Kelly (Rose Byrne) have just welcomed their beautiful daughter into the world and are struggling to cope with the newfound responsibilities of parenthood.

Getting to sleep is a priority so when the house next door goes up for sale and a fraternity led by president Teddy Sanders (Zac Efron) and second-in-command Pete (Dave Franco) moves in, the Radners fear the worst.

They pay a visit to the frat house and politely ask Teddy to keep the noise down. In return, the couple promises not to call the cops but to always approach Teddy if there are problems.

During a raucous party at the fraternity, Mac and Kelly break this promise and dial 911. A neighbourhood cop turns up at the front door of the fraternity and Teddy is so incensed by what he perceives as a betrayal of trust that he subsequently initiates a campaign of mean-spirited pranks to punish the Radners for breaking their promise.

In retaliation, Mac and Kelly plot underhand ways to force the dean, Carol Gladstone (Lisa Kudrow), to discipline her mischievous students and hopefully evict them from the neighbourhood.

I was invited to see my friend's fabulous new multi-level basement in her London home this week. It is a stunning addition to the property, creating a dramatic space that is remarkably light with the aid of a clever design and modern technology.

It will make the house work so much better for her and her family. As they're planning to be there for many years, they will more than reap the rewards of the upheaval and expense it took.

It was a long, drawn out process not helped by various objections to her planning application from neighbours. I can understand why neighbours might object. Basement conversions can go on for many months if not years and in narrow, congested London streets builders and their kit can just be a step too far.

The trend for excavating huge, multi-level basements seems to have taken a hold in London and experts are saying this trend looks set to spread to the suburbs as house prices continue to rise.

Nick de Lotbiniere, head of central London planning at Savills, said: "A rise in house prices has meant it will become feasible for homeowners to look at large basement developments across London and out to the suburbs. A number of boroughs have begun developing planning policy on the subject."

Tom Bill, residential research expert at Knight Frank, said: "You know the trend has taken hold in an area when a square foot of a basement is worth the same as a square foot above ground. That valuation method has spread beyond prime central areas like Kensington and Chelsea and into Wandsworth, Battersea and Clapham over the past 12-18 months."

With more and more London buyers moving out this way and prices climbing accordingly, how long will it be before we too begin to dig down under?

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).
Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.
What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

By George, BATTS table tennis starlet is as good as his grandmother Doris TABLE tennis success clearly runs in the family for youngster George Campbell as he followed in the footsteps of his grandmother Doris.

The 12-year-old member of the BATTS club in Old Harlow has won an outstanding achievement award from the Jack Petchey Foundation for his dedication and commitment to the sport.

He was nominated by his club coaches and has won £200 to put towards a club project to buy an outdoor table.

The youngster is following in some illustrious footsteps – his grandmother Doris Campbell (nee Rivett) was one of the leading players in England after the war and was a doubles partner of Johnny Leach, who was the last English player to be singles world champion in 1951.

George took his grandmother, 88, along to BATTS, based at the Norman Booth Leisure Centre, to see him play during the Easter Holiday training camps.

And this trip saw Doris inspire young club members by showing off a box of medals she won during her career, including the winner's medal from the Wembley Open in 1947.

Bowen moves up as Garrity drops

WITH the new averages released this week, Harlow-born Luke Bowen has moved up into the main body of the Rye House Rockets team, while Jason Garrity is the reserve berth.

Bowen, who has been granted a testimonial by the club this season, is in tremendous form, racking up points home and away.

In contrast Garrity has struggled with bike problems and become increasingly frustrated which has been reflected in the way he rides.

The second reserve slot, filled by Simon Lambert, is causing promoter Len Silver most headaches.

He had high hopes for Lambert this season, but the 25-year-old has averaged just over one point.

Silver said: "I'm not making any changes yet, but everything's always under review."

There was a lot of criticism on social media as to why Rockets' opening Premier League match at home to Scunthorpe on Saturday was called off so early.

Silver said: "I had a forecast of rain all morning until lunchtime, then a dry period before constant rain in the evening."

"Following the overnight rain I couldn't see how we could get the track raceable. I cancelled early so no one had a wasted journey."

"As it turned out the forecast was a joke. Over the 14 years I've been promoter here that's happened perhaps just three or four times."

Rockets host Peterborough this Sunday (2pm).

Sunny and Sher in cup KO for Harlow

REHMAN Ahmed's reign as Harlow skipper got off to a disappointing start when his side lost to Harold Wood in the first round of the Shepherd Neame Essex League Cup on Saturday.

Harlow were bowled out for just 44 at Harold Wood.

The home side, who were promoted to the premier division last year, posted 274-9 in their allotted 45 overs – a substantial total made all the more crushing by a ninth-wicket stand of 109.

And it was a case of sunny and Sher – as South African pro Colin Sher, who caused Harlow many a headache last year, hit a brutal 142 in the sunshine.

There was encouragement for Harlow early on, with seamers Ant Webb (3-55) and debutant Mudasser Naem (3-45) rewarded for their persistence with the new ball.

Luke Heskett kept things exceptionally tight; his nine overs went for 20 runs and included two maidens.

But thereafter the Marigolds' attack flourished.

Spinner Lloyd Sykes had to cut his spell short after sustaining an injury, and fellow youngster Joe Riddell was also hurt while fielding which prevented him from bowling.

Harold Wood 274-9

(Shepherd Neame Essex League Cup, first round)

New signing Imran Qadir was expensive with the ball, having only landed in the UK hours before the game.

Vice-captain Jon Perry, by his own admission a 'net bowler', was forced to produce two overs.

Sher took full advantage, and after a promising start Harlow ran out of options and were left staring at an ominous chase.

No one was quite prepared for what happened next however, as the Harlow batting innings became a procession back to the pavilion.

It took Harold Wood just 13 overs to dismiss their opponents, and Perry's top score of 18 provided the only resistance. S. Khan finished with six wickets.

After the game, Harlow captain Ahmed acknowledged Sher's fine innings. He said: "In my opinion he is the best batsman in the league and he put that beyond doubt today. The fact that their next highest score was 25 says it all."

The skipper said that he did not have concerns in the bowling and fielding department in light of the injuries that were sustained during the game.

He did, however, admit that the batting performance was alarmingly poor: "I am shocked at the manner in which we got blown away. We showed no resilience and after the way the top order has been performing pre-season, this was completely unexpected."

"We simply have to perform better with the bat if we are to solidify our spot in division one this year."

Ahmed's men had more to cheer about in their pre-season fixtures, as they overcame Broxbourne by a convincing margin.

All-rounder Ahmed Khawaja impressed with 51 not out and also picked up four wickets.

Harlow lost by three wickets to Fives & Heronians, as Nino Calvino notched up an assured 62.

Tom Ryder (4-18) caused problems for Fives but the lack of strength in depth in the attack proved costly.

Ahmed added: "Each and every player who appears for the first team this season will have a key role, and competition for places will be intense."

"We are fortunate to have good squad depth, and I am looking forward to the games ahead."

Blewitt: 'Painkillers got me through crunch play-off tie'

JUBILANT Hawks skipper Darren Blewitt confessed he had popped a few too many painkillers to make sure he was fit for Tuesday's play-off semi-final – but he was determined not to miss the club's huge game, writes ALAN SCOTT.

Speaking straight after the 3-0 win at Heybridge Swifts, he said: "I'm in a bit of pain now. These old legs are 28 going on 88.

"I probably took more paracetamols than I should have today. I will have a headache in the morning but I wasn't going to miss this."

Blewitt had been out with a knee injury.

The half-time scoreline was 2-0 but the centre-half said Harlow Town knew what a dangerous scoreline that was and kept up a high tempo.

"Sometimes 2-0 is a difficult score. If they score early, the crowd get on top. But we did our jobs with two banks of four. That's why we have won. There should be no complaints."

Harlow will travel to Witham Town for Sunday's play-off final as underdogs, but Blewitt says Danny Chapman's men will be determined to win promotion to the Ryman premier division.

"We've got pace. We've got goalscoring threat, we've got aggression. We've got everything. Going forward we're always a threat. If we can defend properly, which we have most of the season, we can win the [Witham] game."

Reflecting on the win against bogey side Heybridge, he said: "I'm happy with this. They can't argue, we came here and did a job. For me as well Heybridge are a bogey side. We've lost three times to them this season and deservedly lost. But we have now been on a good run ourselves."

Hawks boss Danny Chapman said: "I don't think there was a single player tonight that put a foot wrong. To a man they were spot on."

"We need to keep our feet on the ground. If the boys can put in the same performance as they have tonight, we have got every chance, I have no doubt."

"I think you have to give [Witham] a bit of credit because after Saturday that's a hard job to pick yourselves up from that. But they have done it."

"They have scored in the 90th minute again which they have done numerous times this year. But we now if we turn up and put into practice what we want to do, we can beat anyone. Let's bring it on.

"[Promotion] makes a difference right throughout the club. The Harlow under 15s were supposed to play a league game tonight but they didn't play it because the under 15 players wanted to come here and watch us."

"That shows you the fantastic unity at the club, everyone is pulling in the right direction. The club is set up to be in the Ryman premier division. So come Sunday let's hope we get through."

Blewitt overcame a knee injury to play against Heybridge.

"Darren said 'I'm fine, I'm playing'. I said well you still have to do a fitness test," Chapman joked. "I thought I might get an hour out of him. He has come through the game and as far as I'm aware he's fine for Sunday."

Town wrap up league campaign with victory to seal fourth place

HARLOW Town wrapped up their Ryman division one north campaign with a 2-0 victory at Brentwood on Saturday.

This ensured they faced bogey side Heybridge Swifts away in the play-off semi-final.

Hawks finished fourth.

Harlow boss Danny Chapman rested some players, putting them on the bench for the game at Brentwood and these included 51-goal striker Alex Read and left-back Layne Eadie.

Skipper Darren Blewitt was missing with a knee injury.

Harlow went ahead in the 31st minute. A corner from the right was headed down by Leon Antoine and it fell to Chinedu McKenzie, who tapped it in from a yard out.

The Hawks' lead was doubled in the 65th minute through a George Smith penalty.

This was awarded after Junior Dadson was fouled. Harlow almost increased their lead when a Jamie Smith free-kick hit a post in the 80th minute.

Hawks assistant boss Paul West-Hook said: "It gave us a chance to give players a game who had not played a match. It was good for Chinedu to score."

"Fabian Simms also got 75 minutes under his belt which was good."

ALAN SCOTT REPORTS ON A MAGICAL NIGHT FOR HARLOW TOWN FC

Antoine: 'We were determined to end our Swifts jinx'

TWO-goal hero Leon Antoine revealed how Harlow Town were determined to lay their Heybridge hoodoo to rest.

Former Swifts striker Antoine said his side were hurt after losing three times to Heybridge in this season alone.

"We knew we had to work hard today. They've worked us for three games now. It's one of our bogey teams and finally you have to turn up and prove you can do something in this league and we did that today," he told the Star afterwards.

"They [Witham] were so close to [winning the title]. They have slipped up a bit recently. We know if we work as hard as we did today and will give them a good game and get a win.

"We all worked as a team [against Heybridge]. We did our jobs. We play at a high tempo every game when we start, the gaffer wants us to start with a high tempo. It paid off.

"The gaffer said 'do our jobs, turn them, get on them, get in their faces, don't let them play and see what happens'. It worked for us."

Harlow will be away to Witham Town in Sunday's final, who beat Needham Market 1-0 in the other play-off semi-final.

"I'm just happy to get through to the final. We have played Witham already, I'm just happy to play them again," said Antoine.

"We've beaten them before, we can do it again. I'm happy to score, it doesn't matter when it is. It helped to get us through and I'm just buzzing about it.

"Two goals and an assist tonight - you can't go wrong with that. I was happy to see the lads through.

"The gaffer tells me to get in the box and I was just happy that I was in the right place at the right time, to get the two goals today."

Hawks boss Danny Chapman added: "Law of averages says you have got to win one game [against Heybridge]. We didn't mention [Harlow's bad record against Heybridge] at all, since we knew who we were playing."

"We have played them three times and they have beaten us three times. Those games can go either way. Play-offs are cup finals. Sunday will be another cup final. We were excellent tonight."

Heybridge hoodoo's over as final awaits

Heybridge Swifts0
Harlow Tn3
(Ryman League, div one north play-off semi-final)

HAWKS boss Danny Chapman paid tribute to his side after they produced one of their best performances of the season to break their Heybridge hoodoo and march into the Ryman League division one north play-off final.

Leon Antoine was the two-goal hero against his old side as a professional display from Harlow Town sealed a 3-0 win on Tuesday, and there was really never any doubt as Danny Chapman's men brushed aside a team that finished the season a place above them in the table.

"They talk about in the papers how Chelsea played against Liverpool, but if you ever need to look at a game where a team is disciplined and their concentration level is [high] - they were excellent. We thoroughly deserve it," beamed Chapman.

"That is what you call a true, proper footballing performance. We defended well. I thought Stan Muguo and Fabion Simms were excellent. They just sat in front of the back four. They broke everything up. That was a massive part of the game."

The Hawks took the lead on 23 minutes when a header from Antoine was met by the outstretched right boot of Alex Read and he flicked out and it looped over Heybridge keeper Ashley Harrison, struck the bar and a post before nestling over the line. It was his 52nd goal of an amazing season.

Harlow made it 2-0 on 33 minutes. James Smith's ball from the left flank into the box saw Michael Toner make a complete hash of a clearance and this allowed Antoine to take possession 14 yards from goal. With just the keeper to beat he smashed it through Harrison and into the net, with the shot just too powerful for the Swifts custodian.

The visitors came out on fire in the second half, determined to put the game to bed and added a third on 51 minutes. Dadson's powerful strike across goal from 20 yards out on the right was too hot for Harrison to handle and Antoine gleefully tucked in the rebound for his second goal of the night as the Heybridge defence once again failed to react.

"You've got Read, Antoine, Dadson and James Smith - you have got people there that can get goals.

"Alex got through early on and was so calm [to score]. Leon did what he did, a great second goal on the turn and for the third goal his desire got him in front of the defender to tap in again," Chapman said.

Dadson went close again near the hour as his powerful strike was well blocked by Harrison.

Heybridge should have had a consolation on 74 minutes but sub Jamie Guy's powerful low effort which seemed destined for the bottom right corner was superbly palmed away by Danny Knowles.

But Heybridge were left shattered as Harlow completed a magical night beside the Blackwater estuary.

Job half done and Witham will be a cracker says skipper

HAWKS skipper Darren Blewitt said his side are determined not to underestimate Witham Town in the play-off final this Sunday.

Witham came within a whisker of winning the Ryman division one north title, but blew it when they drew with Cheshunt on the final league game last Saturday.

However, they bounced back to beat Needham Market 1-0 in the play-off semi-final and will host Harlow in front of a partisan crowd looking to make amends.

"On Sunday we will be confident we can go again. You don't know what team they are going to put out. It's going to be at their home ground. It's going to be a different game. Nothing is going to be taken lightly," said Blewitt.

"If we do that I am confident we can do a job. It must have been a body blow [losing the title] but they have come back today against a good Needham team. It should be a cracker. I can't wait.

"That was a professional performance. Everyone dug in. It wasn't the prettiest performance but they could not handle us. We were on top from the start. We fully deserved that. Coming to a place like this, a team in form and to put in a big, big performance like that, all the lads should be proud of themselves."
